Sunny Border Inc.

For Perennials at Their Best . . .

There is over thirty years' growing experience back of every Perennial we sell here at Sunny Border. . . . experience that assures you of extra hardy, extra sturdy flowering plants which will increase in size and beauty in your garden year after year.

We take extreme care to keep varieties separate and guarantee all plants we sell to be true-to-name.

We have one of the largest collections of Hardy Plants in New England, and not only are many of your favorites listed in our Catalog, but many newcomers as well. A glance below and at the opposite page will introduce a few of them.

Growing the plants to perfection is only part of our job. Our careful handling and packing of your plants will insure their safe arrival, and we point out the fact that there has been no increase in our already low prices, which include postage or express charges on any shipment sent east of the Mississippi.

Please plan to visit Sunny Border this summer. Our Nursery is located on the Kensington Road in Kensington, Conn. From Meriden go north four miles on the Chamberlain Highway, turn right at sign on Orchard Road to Nursery. From Kensington or New Britain go south on the Chamberlain Highway to Orchard Road and turn left at sign to Nursery.

New Plants to Add Zest to Your Garden

Sunny Border presents six brand new Perennials! You can order them with confidence—they have been tested, tried and found worthy.

ASTER, Blue Symphony

The best light blue Aster we have ever seen. Immense symmetrical panicles made up of hundreds of large semi-double flowers. The color is a bright silvery blue. This stately Michaelmas Daisy reaches perfection toward the end of September. One of the latest of all Asters to bloom. Height 3' to 4'. 75c each, 3 for $2.00, $7.50 a doz.

ASTER, Olga Keith

The habit of growth of this new Aster reminds you of the well-known Aster Violetta, but the color is a lovely mauve-pink. A valuable addition to this family. 50c each, 3 for $1.40, $5.00 a doz.

CHRYSANTHEMUM, Carnival

(Bristol Nurseries, 1948). Most Brilliant Mum of all! Conspicuously distinct gay newcomer. Glowing burnt orange best describes the play of luminous red-yellow-orange shades. Literally it glows! Full double blooms 3½" across on long slender stems. Nicely branched productive plants perfect for cut arrangements. Lusty dark green foliage inherited from Nipponicum parents. Truly ornamental. In full bloom October 10th. Height 2½' to 3'. $1.00 each, 3 for $2.75, $10.00 a doz.

COREOPSIS, Baden Gold

If you are looking for the spectacular but still insist on beauty and usefulness you will have it in this magnificent new Coreopsis. The enormous flowers measure 4" to 5" across, and are carried on tall wiry stems. Long blooming season. Color chrome yellow. Height 3'. $1.00 each, 3 for $2.75, $10.00 a doz.

DIANTHUS, Wallace Red

We have long been looking for a real good red Dianthus and believe we have found it in Wallace Red. It's extremely free flowering habit together with its healthy dark green spiny foliage makes this newcomer stand out attractively in your border or rock-garden. Height 7" to 8". 75c each, 3 for $2.00, $7.50 a doz.

HELENIUM, Sunburst

Originated in the State of Oregon, this Helenium should prove tremendously popular. Large flower heads bright yellow in color make this a valuable companion to the Hardy Asters. Blooms in August and Sept. Height 2'. 75c each, 3 for $2.00, $7.50 a doz.

10% discount allowed on your order if received by us before March 1st!

Orders received before our rush season make our work easier and make it possible for us to offer you a substantial saving on top of our already low prices.

The stocks of many items listed in our catalog are small. We set aside stock for orders as they are received - another advantage of early ordering.

Recent Introductions Destined to Become Old Favorites

We recommend that you give the following recently introduced varieties a trial. We think they are wonderful and we know they will take their place amongst your favorites for years to come.

ASTILBE, Fanal

This brilliant red Astilbe will stand out like a Beacon of Light in any border. Feathery plumes 24" in height over healthy bronze foliage. 50c each, 3 for $1.40, $5.00 a doz.

BUDDLEIA, White Cloud

A new white Butterfly Bush which develops into a very symmetrical and compact plant. It produces hundreds of well-formed blossoms which are pure white with tiny bright yellow eyes. Perfectly hardy. Very free bloomer and a vigorous grower. Height 4' to 5'. $1.00 each, 3 for $2.75, $10.00 a doz.

CAMPANULA, Blue Carpet

Lovely and compact is this little Carpatian Harebell. Literally a carpet of blue in mid-summer. 5" high and very hardy. 50c each, 3 for $1.40, $5.00 a doz.

CHRYSANTHEMUM, Yellow Avalanche

Enormous fluffy and soft delicate blooms best describes this yellow form of the ever-popular white Avalanche. This grand cut-flower variety grows to a height of 2' and begins to bloom early in Sept. 60c each, 3 for $1.60, $5.50 a doz.

DIANTHUS, Unique

Mellow sweet fragrance! Plenteousness of double, carnation-like flowers all summer long. The blue foliage is spiny and 12" high. Try them in these provoking colors: Glowing Salmon, Lavender Rose, Velvety Dubonnet. 75c each, 3 for $2.00, $7.50 a doz.

DICENTRA, exemia, Sweetheart

Pure white dwarf Bleeding Heart. Ever-blooming and hardy, requiring some shade. 85c each, 3 for $2.25, $8.00 a doz.

PHLOX, Subulata, Emerald Cushion

Pink or blue sparkling mats of color in your early Spring garden. Moss-like evergreen foliage. Extremely hardy. 50c each, 3 for $1.40, $5.00 a doz.

RUDBECKIA, Bright Star

Introduced by Sunny Border last Spring, and mentioned in the Flower Grower Magazine as a most outstanding novelty. This variety is compact and neat of growth—only 2' high. It bears large crimson-coral flowers. The cone is small, the petals overlap and stand out straight. This tough Perennial feels at home in practically any climate and thrives in part shade or full sun. Outstanding as a cut-flower. $1.00 each, 3 for $2.75, $10.00 a doz.

THALICTRUM, Lavender Mist

Tall new Meadow Rue from Bulgaria. Just the thing for shade or as a background in the border. Loads of lovely lavender flowers on many branched stems. Foliage like Maiden Hair Fern. Cut and use it like Babysbreath. 50c each, 3 for $1.40, $5.00 a doz.

VERONICA, Sunny Border Blue

A new subsessilis variety. Somewhat similar in color to the Veronica Longifolia but much taller, blooming several weeks earlier and absolutely free of disease. Please try this lovely Sunny Border introduction. 75c each, 3 for $2.00, $10.00 a doz.

For further description of these Novelties and of your Old Favorites, please see our General List on the following pages:

Watch for Gardening Hints Like These Throughout Our Catalog

Hardy Garden Chrysanthemums

Selected for our New England climate

Chrysanthemums are among the most dependable flowers in the Autumn garden, providing glorious color and a spicy fragrance from early September until heavy frosts end the display. In this catalog we are listing close to fifty varieties which we consider the best of each type and color of those tested in our fields. Chrysanthemums will give you more cut flowers and garden pleasure per dollar spent than any other Perennial. It's almost unbelievable that these inexpensive potted plants set in your garden in May or early June will give you such a grand show next September and October. Best of all, they are so easy to grow—all they need is a sunny spot and good garden soil.

LOVELY LARGE FLOWERED MUMS
